THE TIMES.

FARMVILLE

We are beginning ahead to dread the 'good bye' to the Normalites. None of us know what we ever did without them They brighten our social and religious circles as sunrise brightens the morning. We have some comfort in the thought that the summer Normal will soon follow and when it adjourns the fall session comes in quick succession, and this means that some of us are growing old and that "the places that now know us will soon know us no more forever." Morning had scarce begun before noon hour was struck, and now the evening shadows gather.

My sympathies are often moved by the old Confederates who come here asking for pensions. Their needs are so great and the help so small. Still Virginia is doing her best, and no one of them is ever heard to complain. Glorious is peace as well as war, heroes all in the hour of defeat as well as in the hour of victory. Immortal, of whom the world cannot do too much to honor.

We all do greatly miss Dr. John Hamlet, but our loss is Pamplin's gain.

Mr. J. J. Walker is all smiles—it's a girl.

It is rumored that a large lumber plant will be located at Hawke, on the line of the Tidewater & Western, in the county of Cumberland, some eight miles north of Farmville. It is a good timber section and I am hoping big things of the venture. Southside Virginia will yet occupy it's proper place in business circles.

We bury our dead and then return to life's work as though there would never be another death. Every man is mortal except ourselves.

I can remember when our housekeepers expected fully to have lamb and peas on the first Monday in May, but not so now. Even if the lamb were big enough none but a Rockefeller could buy a quarter and he does'nt buy in our market.

What has become of the goose berries? The "tarts" were great spring luxuries too but "no fellow" ever finds them in these days, and the currants are no longer in evidence, and I am quite sure that currant ale was the choicest of summer drinks. Lemonade went begging when currant soda had

Has the "Golden Age" begun or is it yet to come? The old men in Jerusalem wept when the temple was being rebuilt as they remembered the old, but the young people rejoiced as they looked forward to the new. Memory seems all that is left to some people, and yet hope should spring eternally in the breast of the old as well as of the young. Heaven is beyond, and there is no Heaven behind.

I have heard none of our house wives boasting of early gardens. I presume all of them are distressingly late, and no can substitutes begin to take the place of fresh garden products. The wild onion hasn't been getting in it's usual work this season and of this, all of us are glad, for while many people love onions, nobody loves them in milk or butter.

The travel on the N. & W. trains indicate that the rush to the Exposition is not yet on.

The soda water man insists upon it that this has been the "warmest" spring ever known to the trade.

Cook stoves supplied with oil or gasoline are growing in favor with us. Labor saving machines will take the place of absconding labor. White folks are going to be well fed, well clad and well housed should all the negroes go to Africa. So long as they are with us and are willing to serve we are glad to have them, but if they prefer to go we are not going after them nor suffer by reason of their absence. This is white man's country and under God's blessing they are going to take care of it and themselves.

The merchants on the west side of Main Street, now that the summer time is coming, have the advantage of their neighbors on the east side in that they revel in the shade while the others roast in the sunshine, but these conditions will be reversed when the winter comes again, and it will come and has gotten in the habit of staying when it does come.

Our side walks are better and better though they do pay that the dispensary whiskey is not much improved. Still some people drink it acting, perhaps upon the theory of the old toper, who never saw any bad whiskey, only that some was better than "tother."

The Chernault Brothers, who lost heavily by fire recently, have been generously aided by their friends and express their gratitude in feeling terms.

Mr. Thompson, who closed his aw office here some months since, has returned to resume the practice of his profession, and will be associated as before with Mr. Lee, of Nottoway, having offices at both places.

Miss Mamie Wade, the advanced guard of our returning teachers, is at home for the summer.

Capt. S. W. Paulette has announced to the veterans that they will move on Richmond on the morning of the 29th.

For the first time in it's history the Tidewater & Western will run a train so that the citizens of Cumberland and Powhatan can come to Farmville, spend some five hours shopping and return to their homes the same day. Well done.

When the late E. J. Whitehead died he was referred to as being one of the youngest, if not the youngest Clerk of Courts in the State and he was 32 years of age. Judge Hundley has named as his successor young Adams, who is only 22 years of age. It may be that clerks are like poets, "born not made." This is the day of young men, however, and the "cold fellow" had as well recognize the fact. Still we will not have Dr. Oder to chloroform them. They may at least go to spring, pick up chips or rock the cradle

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Syrup.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barchy, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever."

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rollano Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and limp from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheuma tism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, deserves attention, because of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OLD BUCKINGHAM.

THE GRAND OLD COUNTY PHOTOGRAPHED.

Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Buckingham:
After being requested by many of our Democratic friends in Buckingham County, we now announce ourselves as the Independent candidates for the office of Sheriff of Buckingham County. We appreciate the kindness of our Republican friends in endorsing our candidacy and they have our thanks, but we want it distinctly understood that we are Independent candidates for this office and have been all the time, and have been endorsed by our Republican friends. Knowing the duties of this office we feel that we can manage the affairs of the office with due credit to ourselves. Thanking you for your confidential expressed heretofore and bespeaking your further consideration, we are,
Yours faithfully.
C. D. McCRAW
P. A. GRIGG.

For the Senate.

To the Voters of the Eighteenth Senatorial District, (Appomattox, Buckingham, Fluvanna and Charlotte.)
I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the State Senate, subject to your approval at the Democratic primary, pledging myself to the faithful discharge of the duties of the office if elected, and a watchful eye to the wishes and interest of our District.
Your obedient servant,
T. W. SCOTT,
Drakes Branch, Va.

Buckingham.

Bishop Tucker, of the Episcopal church, will preach at Emanuel church, this county, on the 17th and 18th of August, and will preach at the Courthouse at 11 o'clock a. m. of the 20th of August. On the 21st of August he is to have an all day meeting at St. Peter's church at Curdsville, preaching at 11 a. m. and 2.30 p. m. of that day. This notice is given a long time in advance and you must write the dates in your note book.

The Farmville correspondent thinks the price of spring lamb "out of sight," but I sold some nice fat ones last week for $2.50 each.

Miss Corrine had a fine force of hands and teams planting corn last week. The Doctor is getting down to farming in great shape, and if he is as good at farming as he is at practicing medicine he will do well.

Professor H. Blankinship will go home for a short stay and then go to the Exposition and he will spend some time with a friend, who lives near enough to go to Jamestown every day.

The top notch was reached in the wages of hands working in the woods on bark, poplar and lumber last week. A prominent saw mill man told me there was nothing in the business now at the prices paid for labor, and for six months work he would clear absolutely nothing.

Printed matter for the guidance of those who contemplate attending the school of methods at Farmville is being sent out.

A telegram stated that Mr. Perkin Moseley was dead was received here on Saturday last, and the same night Mrs. Pratt, one of his sisters, came on from Farmville to be with her mother. Notice was given out on Sunday that the burial of Mr. Moseley's body would take place in the cemetery here on the 28th. Deceased was operated on one day last week and died under the operation. He leaves a widow, five sisters and their mother to mourn their loss.

Andersonville.

Hello TIMES, what is your ring? I see you are putting in the phone poles, so I will give one long ring and commence.

Well, did you ever see such a pretty day as this Saturday is? The sun so bright, the wind so soft, and every prospect pleases.

Well, I don't know about that as to the candidates. The woods are getting full. Three or four for Commissioner, two or three for Treasurer, same for Sheriff, and so on to Constable. I see Bro. Spencer, though a dyed in the wool Democrat, can't go "dat" his son. Right Bro. John, blood is thicker than water, but our cousin Jimmie will be there when the votes are polled and don't you forget it. Good men they are both of them, can't find better.

Well, if they will make Bryan President for eight years, when Mr. Roosevelt's term expires, they may disfranchise me for life. Roosevelt in the Senate and Bryan in the White House. What a team; and they pull so nicely together. Billy points out the way and Teddy just plumbs the track.

By the way, your Arvonia writer says the candidates must make themselves understood on the bible-key question. That writer has horse sense. The band wagon is up to you, Mr. Candidate, show your colors, or get left.

I don't know how it was, Mr. Editor, that your wife should fall in love and marry such an "ugly" man, but you are giving us a real good newsy paper. Our people around here think so too (about the paper not your beauty), as there are about five to one of any Virginia papers that comes to this office. It is eagerly sought for every Thursday. Your Buckingham writer is the first. I don't know how any one so deaf as he can hear so much. Mr. Cary McCraw and Mr. Wm Shaw were good friends and loved to rig each other. Mr. McCraw was an auctioneer. At one of our county courts he was selling a horse, and a great crowd was around him. Mr. Shaw, on the outskirts, said, "Hold him up Cary, hold him up, here's a fellow that made a bid, can't you hear?" "Yes," Mr. McCraw said, "I hear a good many things about you I don't want to hear." So it is I suppose with the Buckingham writer, he hears some things if he is deaf that he don't want to hear. Anyway we read him first and then turn to the Farmville man and read everything we see from there. The first sweetheart we ever had lived in Farmville, and we have loved the town ever since. Few are now living that were then in man's estate—in the fifties. Meade Davidson, Mr. Hart and Charley Crambert, are all I now remember. John Walton and Ned Crambert were in a kind of gosling stage; Sam Paulette and Bob Miller were just kids; they did go in the army and I don't remember whether they wore knee pants or not. I don't remember the fashions for boys then, I know the women had hoops and my! what a big ones some did wear. It is said that one of the boys in Appomattox got a set, (or pair, whatever they call them) and a long-eared bonnet and raised the sympathy of the enrolling officer, telling him of her poor husband's suffering in the army and was left quietly hoeing the truck patch.

Well when we got to talking about women we got clean off Sam, and Bob and the knee pants. The next war I get into I shall wear them. You see a fellow can get to the rear faster.

If I had the pen of a ready writer like your Farmville man, I would like so to tell of the old folks. I would go from Mr. Warren's to Jenkin's Shop on the west and Hillard's to the foundry on the east of Main How many hundreds have passed over the river of death since then. Months of Sundays in the evening did I hear Dr. Wm. Hoge preach Blind Bartimeus by the wayside? I heard he put his sermons in book form. I have never seen a copy.

I have got no bad news to write except Percy Spencer's misfortune. I hear his left arm was cut off at the shoulder; I don't know the particulars. Percy was a good boy, so far as we know or believe. Stay at home boys on the farm. Make this old land of ours bloom and blossom like a garden. Yes, and one death was that bad news? I think not from a scriptural standpoint. Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth, as to what portion and at what time, I will leave that to Bible scholars.

Mrs. Virginia Gregory died near Arvonia on the 11th, and was buried at the Moses Flood cemetery on the 13th. She was one of the best women I ever knew; for over fifty years a member of Bethel Methodist Church, who lived that many years up to the vows she took at its altar. Her example is worthy of the highest immitation. She did the best she could at all times, and under all circumstances.

A little gentleman just seven months old has been invited to two birthday parties this week. Master Richard McCraw, three years old, gave out invitations the 16th and had a gathering that enjoyed milk cream and cake more than the merry-go-round. The 17th Miss Bettie Forbes entertained a nice little party on her birthday. I'll not tell her age. She will be grown almost before you know it. This little seven month fellow in our home was born about the same hour Sam Jon's died. I wonder if Sam could throw his mantle from Arkansas to Virginia? I hope so. So mote it be. Amen.

I forgot to mention your other writers, Glenfall, Hixburg, Dinwiddie etc. The commander-in-chief never fails to read from Glenfall and Hixburg. Kin folks, you know you know; Mary, Sue and Hattie.

A young fellow some years ago told a tale on one of his sisters. Said he asked her when she died if she wanted to go to Heaven. She told him she wanted to go where Pat Forbes went. Judging from their lives they are together. Both together; they were excellent women.

Now about the roads. If only some good water power, either on Slate or Willis River, as near the centre of the county as possible, establish an electric plant, get an engine or two, lay the track up from Court House to Howardsville and buy the big hill south of the creek, part of the old Spot Jones tract, and go to hauling that dirt and put it in the road bed 8 or 10 inches deep. I believe it will be equal to macadamizing. Who ever saw that hill muddy or the walk ways made of it in the village out of fix? Almost equal to pavement.

I may not live to see it, but Mr. Strode will be one of Virginia's biggest men some sweet day.

Buck Agee has given bond for postmaster for West Buckingham John Scruggs as assistant. John is a good one of the best postmasters I know. He will walk miles to deliver an important letter without fee or reward.

Pat up the receiver Mr. Editor, I am through. Put it up with a whisper to yourself "I am glad of it?" Oh, I forgot our neighbor and friend Emmett went over yesterday to Farmville to consult a dentist for a set of teeth. Getting ready, he says, for the reunion. I don't expect boys they will feed us on same sort of beef they did in war times. Let the teeth off us I we get back.

New Store.

I wonder what has become of all of the Buckingham correspondents?

Miss Jessie Trent is at home from her school.

Mrs. Susie Southall and mother, Mrs. Johnson, from near Prospect, were visiting at Mrs. Henry Southall's hospitable home, "Avon," this week. Also Miss Vadia Southall.

Miss Polly Garnett, of Arnanum is at home from her mountain school.

Miss Marie Jones and brother, were guests of their grandmother Mrs. L. D. Jones last Sunday.

Mrs. James Beck is very sick again. Dr. Morris is attending her. We hope she may soon be well again.

Mr. Henry Kidd, wife and daughters left Saturday for Roanoke, where they have been visiting his and his wife's mothers for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Richard Gilliam gave her granddaughters, Misses Ethel and Carrie Brooks, quite a nice evening with their friends Saturday night. Their parlor was tastefully decorated with cut flowers. The music was splendid. Messrs. Jennings Snavely and Hughes, with their violin and harp furnished it. Among the girls were: Misses Peach, Myrtle, Beagie and Iva Jennings, Susie Hales, Mary Cheadle and Ethel and Carrie Brooks. At 10 o'clock the merry young people were invited in the spacious hall to partake of refreshments, and then the young people left for their respective homes, declaring that they had had a delightful time and hoping that Mrs. Gilliam will have many more just such evenings.

INTERESTING STORIES ABOUT HOME FOLKS.

Our Correspondents relate the News of the County.

Hebron.

System is necessary to the success of any business even to the correspondence of a newspaper. Therefore we like to give our monthly letter, even if news is scarce, as it is at present. Spring brings with it so much business that there is nothing much but work going on.

I wonder if many ever think of the blessing of the holy Sabbath day, and welcome it as "a sweet day of rest." The best of all the seven, when we can lay aside the duties of earth and revel in the thought of a glorious Heaven. Some of us realized this as we listened to the good gospel sermon from Dr. Winn at Stonewall last Sunday. Truly he seems a consecrated man.

Pastor Davidson and Supt. T. O. Davidson have been attending the Southern Baptist Convention and the Exposition for ten days. They expect to return home Friday.

Miss Mabel Davidson has closed her successful school term and is now adding cheer to her home.

Mr. T. B. Carson is working faithfully for the Hebron High School. Hope he may succeed and his bright flock of little ones have full benefit.

Dr. Willie B. Thornhill, Mr. S. Thornhill and Master Rob had quite a merry time at the McIver pond yesterday killing frogs, the number of which that pond can boast of to the detriment of the large carp formally caught there. Dr. Thornhill also took with him to Lynchburg one of the beautiful tad-poles as a curiosity to exhibit. Doesn't this prove Mr. Editor, that country has an advantage over city.

Mr. Sam Taylor stopped over with his brother, Jas. B., on his last moving trip. We were glad to find him in such high spirits over the change he has made. He seems to be delighted with his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cardwell, of Concord, visited Mrs. McIver this week. Mr. Cardwell is an old Confederate veteran and loves to relate old war scenes. He ex cects to attend the reunion in Richmond.

Mrs. P. W. Stratton has been quite sick for the past week.

Our hearts have been pained at the news received yesterday that Mr. Ned Taylor, who has been sick for some time, had grown worse and had been taken to Richmond for serious surgical treatment, accompanied by our Dr. Whitehead. May the Lord spare his useful life.

It seems that our aged ones are fast being gathered home. This writer had known Mr. L. A. Williams from youth and echoes the sentiments in his obituary. Nothing that God could ever be truthfully said of him. How we pity the lone widow.

Mrs. Lizzie Stratton, who has been ill most of the winter, has improved sufficiently to make a trip to Oakville, visiting Mrs. Ed Owens.

Capt. Watt Carson has regained health and renewed his youth, judging from appearance.

Miss Martha Carson is nursing Mr. Cary Carson's little girls, who have the measles. She is a young Good Samaritan.

Mrs. Andrew Jennings is visiting a Mr. H. B. Jenning's.

We were glad to read the letter from Glenfall to-day. Her letters are always of much interest. It is so pleasant to have this intercourse between our fellow being. Our paper is worthy of our pride.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and diarrhoea Remedy. During the third term of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take.

A Cough Medicine
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs. If your doctor endorses it for your case, take it. If not, don't take it. Never go contrary to his advice.
We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor
Ayer's
The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one at bedtime. As a rule, laxative doses are better than cathartic doses. For constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-headaches, they cannot be excelled. Ask your doctor about this.
